

Papers on Indian Observatories 1890-1935 (Received from RGO 7/158)

Envelope containing memorandum and correspondence on the Indian observatories committee meetings, 1892-1899, with plans for new observatories at Kodaikanal and Bombay and a memorandum.

Envelope containing undated micrometer sketches.

Correspondence and memoranda relating to the supply of two 18-foot domes for the Kodaikanal Observatory, including plans and estimates, 1898.

Correspondence on the provision of a transit circle and clock at the Colaba Observatory, 1899.

Papers referring to the supply of reseau for the Kodaikanal Observatory, 1901.

Papers and private correspondence concerning an Assistant Director for the Kodaikanal Observatory, 1902.

Correspondence with the directors of Indian observatories, 1895-1900: C. Michie Smith, 1895-1900; Mr Naegamvala, 1896; Mr Moos, 1898; J. Eliot, 1898-1899; G.S. Forbes, Educational Service, 1898; and Major General Gore, 1898. There are also telegrams concerning the Indian eclipse of 1898.

Resolutions passed at meetings of the Indian Observatories Committee on 26 October 1892, 20 July 1893, 17 July 1895 and 17 November 1897.

Correspondence and papers concerning the Indian Observatories Committee meetings of January 1902 and the loan of a spectroheliograph to the Kodaikanal Observatory.

Papers and correspondence with the Indian Office, 1893-1901, including annual reports from observatory directors and a report by the Astronomer Royal on the reorganization of Indian observatories.

Correspondence concerning the meeting of 16 May 1905.

Correspondence concerning the meeting of 7 February 1906.

Correspondence concerning the meeting of 21 June 1906, including the appointment of a Third Assistant to the meteorological reporter.

Correspondence concerning the meeting of 6 June 1907, including a report from the Superintendent at Madras on committee recommendations.

Correspondence concerning the meeting of 7 November 1907, including letters on the establishment of meteorological stations on the Indian Ocean Islands and a report on the strengthening of staff at Kodaikanal and extra observing work.

Correspondence concerning the meetings of June and July 1908.

Papers concerning the Indian Observatories Committee meeting of 27 February 1890.

Papers concerning the Indian Observatories Committee meeting of 2 July 1891.

Correspondence, mainly with the Secretary of State, India Office, concerning the maintenance of the Madras Observatory, 1891.

Correspondence with members of the Indian Observatories Committee, 1893, calling a meeting to consider the annual report of the Madras Observatory for 1892- 1893.